FROM JERUSALEM TO CLERKENWELL THE STORY OF THE HOSPITALLER KNIGHTS OF ST. JOHN

Sir David Durie, KCMG, Knight of St. John
Governor and Commander-in-Chief of Gibraltar 2000-2003

Saturday 24th February 2018
Starts at 11.00am (Coffee at 10.30am)

Come and hear Sir David Durie, KCMG tell the story of the founding of the Hospitallers in Jerusalem as a nursing order during the first crusade. Expelled from the Holy Land they continued their work tending the sick and defending Christian interests in Rhodes until ousted by the Ottomans in 1522. They settled in Malta but were again attacked by the Ottomans and eventually expelled by Napoleon. Today the Order of St. John is based in Clerkenwell'.
